The Class of 1948
presents

The Meta

"Prudentia, Fortitudine, Patientia, Fide"

ALMA MATER

The Living Temple

Not in the world of light alone,
Where God has built his blazing throne,
Nor yet alone in earth below,
With belted seas that come and go,
And endless isles of sunlit green,
Is all thy Maker's glory seen:
Look in upon thy wondrous frame,—
Eternal wisdom still the same!

— Oliver Wendell Holmes

FOREWORD

To us who graduate in 1948, this yearbook records not only the end of four difficult yet profitable years of study, but also four years during which time we have formed firm friendships that will in years to come be strengthened and enriched. We have during the past four years experienced the happiest days of our lives.

In years to come we shall scan the contents of the META and recognize the familiar faces of our classmates and friends who accompanied us in those earlier years along the path that leads to a richer and a fuller life.

Each of us will start on the road of life with little understanding of what lies ahead. We are but freshmen in a world of vast opportunities where each of us will have his own part to play in the great drama about to unfold.

May this META serve constantly as a link between the future and the past. May it ever serve as a bond holding closely together for all time the members of the Class of 1948.

MR. WILLIAM A. WELCH
Superintendent of Schools

Graduation from high school marks the end of the first phase of one's education. It should serve as an incentive to explore the more advanced fields of learning whether it be in the arts, the sciences, or business. Our constant aim through life should be the development of a sound mind in a healthy body together with the character, spirituality, and disposition to make us a credit to ourselves, our families and our city. May the Class of 1948 continue to earn the congratulations which we, your teachers, now sincerely extend.

WILLIAM A. WELCH

Congratulations to the members of the Class of 1948 on reaching a milestone in your progress on the road of life. For many, graduation means the end of formal training, while for others, it is preparation for the pursuit of higher learning. For all of us, however, education is a never ending process and it is my sincere hope that you will constantly strive to improve yourselves educationally to the end that you may be better equipped to discharge the serious obligations and responsibilities of citizenship. It is my sincere wish that health and happiness be yours in the years to come.

J. HENRY HIGGINS

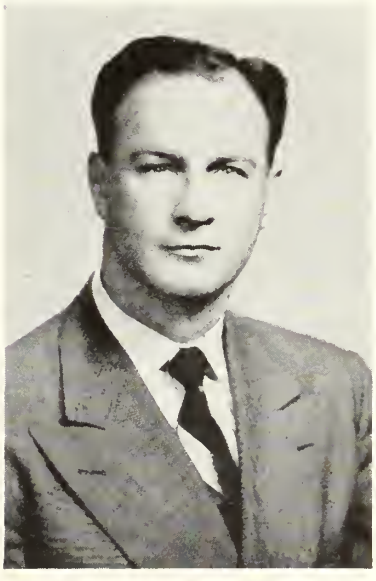
J. HENRY HIGGINS
Assistant Superintendent

The pleasure of knowing and helping you during these past four years is one I shall always cherish.

As I say farewell, may I add my sincere wish that you will richly enjoy, in future years, the happiness you so meritoriously deserve.

ARTHUR J. BARRY

MR. ARTHUR J. BARRY
Principal



TIMOTHY F. McCARTHY
Vice Principal

Congratulations to the Class of 1948. The year has been one of pleasant memories. I have enjoyed working with the Class and it is with deep regret that I bid you farewell.

You have my sincere wishes for success and happiness in your future endeavors.

TIMOTHY F. McCARTHY

To

Mr. Timothy F. McCarthy

Vice-principal

who in his one short year with us has proved to be a wise counselor and a good friend

We, the Class of 1948,
gratefully dedicate

The Meta

AN APPRECIATION

We would like to take this opportunity to acknowledge, with a few sincere words, a deep gratitude to those who have helped us materially in our journey through high school.

To Mrs. Ruth Conley, to whom we owe so much for her making possible the presentation of our High School Revue, "Happy Daze," and for her competent advice which has made the currents of our high school careers run more smoothly; to Mrs. Eva Haines for her delightful art contributions to various social events during our years at Peabody High School; to our class advisers, Mr. Edward T. Donahue and Mr. Charles J. Carlin who assumed, uncomplainingly, the additional tasks that accompany such a position; to our home room teachers whose contributions to our well-being have been numberless; and to all who have assisted us in any way during these happy years, the members of the Class of 1948 are truly grateful.

OUR FACULTY

These names seem to the casual onlooker merely a group of letters bound together by the natural law which creates words. But to those students such as we of the class of 1948, they are people. Mind you, not instructors or mentors, although it is they who have played the major part in the molding of our lives through these formative years, but warm, likeable people. Naturally, there have been minor dissonances deranging the smooth current of our high school careers, but as graduation looms near, these conflicts seem to become unimportant, and we recall those pleasanter moments when a very human smile completely overspread the stern features at a classroom joke. We recall, too, occasions when we could sense some personal calamity had gripped their own lives — an odd electric feeling that imported trouble.

We shall always remember them as our friends who helped to prepare us well for the world we are now about to enter. May they always remember us with the fondest of memories.

Our year book would be incomplete without some mention of all the diligent efforts of the class of 1948 to make their graduation an impressive as well as a successful one. The year 1948 marked the first time in the history of Peabody High School where all the girls were bedecked in white caps and gowns while the boys were clad in the usual manner of navy blue.

The songs sung by the entire class of 1948 under the capable direction of Miss Grace Lawless were: "Star Spangled Banner—Francis Scott Key; "Liebestraum"—Franz Liszt; "Let All Things Now Living"—Welsh Melody.

Undoubtedly this graduation will be long remembered by the class of 1948.

Front Row, left to right: P. Leonard, S. McLain, N. McLain, M. Kachinski, Mr. D. Edward Gorman, Director, E. Wadden, R. Dow, N. Doody, D. Gordon. Second Row: A. Dodge, A. Palczynski, D. Argeros, R. The Dramatic Guild under the direction of Mr. D. Edward Gorman we shall always remember as one of the outstanding organizations of our high school days. Founded in 1937 by Mr. Gorman, the Guild temporarily suspended its activities during the war years while its director, as well as many of our other teachers, were in the service.

It was during our Junior year that the first plans were made for the reorganization of the Guild. In April of that year we took our first active part in the Guild by electing officers for the year 1947-1948. Those selected were President, Marie Kachinski; Vice-President, Ellen Wadden; Secretary, Nancy Doody; Treasurer, Roger Dow; Chairman of Board of Directors, Neil McLain; Senior Director, Donald Gordon; Junior Director, Paul Leonard; Sophomore Director, Sally McLain.

Returning to school in the fall of 1947 we had the opportunity of further participating in this organization which has afforded many of our classmates valuable experience in the field of drama.

During the year we were fortunate in being able to stage two productions. The first was a mystery play entitled "The Red Spider" which was produced in mid-December. This was followed in May by a light comedy "Her One Track Mind".

As if this weren't enough, the Guild provided many other entertaining and enjoyable activities. Chief among these were the two trips the Guild made, the various movies shown at meetings, the Valentine party and many other occasions too numerous to mention here.

The senior members of the Guild are sure to remember for many years to come the innumerable pleasures and wealth of experience they obtained as members of the Dramatic Guild of P. H. S.

Members of the class of '48 who took active part in the work and play of the Dramatic Guild were Alicia Palczynski, Nancy Doody, Donald Gordon, Joe Kavanaugh, Roger Dow, Dan Doherty, Neil McLain, Peter Melnik, Dora Argeros, Eleanor Singerman, Peter Bouras, Catherine Dunn, Patricia Anthony, Kay Berry, Zigmund Kramnick, Adele Herman, Marie Kachinski, Shirley Leonard, Ada Osgood, Rose Papanickolas, Ruth Pierce, Shirley Remis, Ellen Wadden and Aurelie Dodge.

GLEE CLUB

Our Glee Club under the capable direction of Miss Grace Lawless has enjoyed a successful year due to her untiring efforts and ever-present encouragement. The girls of the club participated in the Christmas carols, songs which always add to the color of the season. Meetings were held on Thursdays in the Music Room at which time all sorts of entertaining tunes were sung. The following poem seems to describe our club very aptly:

Many are low-pitched,
High there are more,
'Course we've no Garlands
And no Dinah Shore.
But when we're together
We sing oh! so gay,
That though we have troubles,
They seem far away.

The members of the club were as follows: Barbara Burkinshaw, Lois Fitchuk, Thelma Feldman, Elizabeth Holuk, Shirley Leonard, Louise Mahoney, Mary Ann Levasseur, Jeanne Meade, Ellen Osepchuk, Beatrice Manos, Loretta Morrison, Vera Palmachuk, Mary Sullivan, Dorothy Whitcomb, Elsie Vieira, Robert Dowdell, Clarence Carter, Richard Burke, Michael Guzowski, Paul Hamel, Robert Thibodeau.

SPANISH CLUB

One of the most energetic and most successful Spanish Clubs ever formed at Peabody High School drew its membership from the Class of '48. The club began its year in September of 1946 with the election of the following officers: President, Aristotle Vontzalides; Vice-President, Virginia Silva; Secretary, Anastacia Decoules; Treasurer, Stella Themes.

Expert salesmanship and a hearty spirit contributed to the success of the annual Thanksgiving raffle and left the Club with a substantial treasury balance when the good year 1946 came to a close.

The Spanish Club greeted the New Year con alegre (with joy) and the Spanish Club Dance on January 24. Authentic Spanish scarves graced the walls and a true fiesta-like atmosphere provided background.

A visit to Boston, including a meeting with Georgia Mae at station WBZ and attendance at a personal appearance of Vaughn Munroe at the R. K. O., climaxed a year long to be remembered.

Miss Marguerite Murphy, the capable adviser of the Spanish Club, deserves congratulation for her splendid leadership.

STAMP CLUB

Midway through our Senior year a new club appeared at P. H. S., an organization which seems headed for a bright future. This organization, the Stamp Club of Peabody High School, headed by the Supervisor of Penmanship, Miss Emma E. Adams, first met early in February at which time elections were held. Those chosen to guide the Club through its first year of existence were: President, Daniel Doherty; Vice-president, Donald Gordon; Recording Secretary, Fay Merken; Corresponding Secretary, Helen Schorr; Treasurer, Philip Goulston.

Soon after the initial meeting, a constitution was drawn up and adopted by the club.

Although one of the newer organizations at P. H. S., the Stamp Club has nevertheless made something of a reputation for itself in two fields. The first of these consists of the colorful and informative posters which the Club has prepared in order to show some of the attractions of philately to non-members. The second field is that dealing with the culinary art. The fine refreshments (prepared incidentally by some of the more gifted lady members of the club) which were served on various occasions have proved to be a never ending source of favorable comment.

To round out the year's activities, the club secured a guest speaker at one meeting and displayed a very fine stamp exhibition at the end of the year. In addition the Beverly Stamp Club extended a very kind invitation to the members of the P. H. S. Stamp Club to attend their meetings in Beverly.

The members of '48 who assisted in the work of organizing this new and worthwhile activity must certainly feel proud that the club in so short a time has done so well. No doubt they feel that in future years the club will achieve an even greater measure of success.

THE RED SPIDER

The first production which the Dramatic Guild attempted since its reorganization was a mystery play entitled "The Red Spider". For weeks prior to the production speculation as to the identity of the "Red Spider" ran high. Placards and posters adorned the corridors. Everyone was suspected. Finally the fateful hour approached and on Dec. 12 before a packed house the curtains parted and the amateur actors, who a few minutes before had been nervously pacing the floor made their debut. Before the evening was over the very-well-behaved audience had been treated to several lessons in the art of making love, as well as in how not to solve a mystery. Shortly before the fall of the final curtain, the audience discovered that the villain of the play had been none other than that old mountaineer Zeb O'Kelley, alias Joe Kavanaugh.

For a high school production "The Red Spider" was unusually well acted.

No small measure of the success of this play goes to Mr. Gorman, the director, and to Mrs. Leonard, the makeup artist. The audience, too, must be given a share of the credit because of the enthusiastic manner in which they received the play.

The members of the cast who gave their all (or what there was left of it after rehearsals) were: Roger Dow, Marie Kachinski, Alicia Palczynski, Joseph Kavanaugh, Donald Gordon, Neil McLain, Daniel Doherty and Shirley Remis of the Class of 1948; Evelyn Bacherman, '49 and Sally McLain, '50.

The director was Mr. D. Edward Gorman; Assistant Director, Nancy Doody, '48; Stage Director, Melvin Mizner, '50; Assistant Stage Director, Mary Tsaltas, 49; Prompter, Patricia Riordan, '50; and Madeline Hobbs, '49.

CAST OF "HER ONE TRACK MIND."

All tracks led to Grand Central Station in P. H. S. the night of May 7, 1948, as the Dramatic Guild presented its second play of the year, "Her One Track Mind." The audience, which was even more receptive than the one which sat in on the Guild's production of "The Red Spider", was treated to an enjoyable evening of comedy mixed with a little tragedy, with live rabbits hopping about, glamour classes practicing, and farms burning down. Before the evening was over, however, "Her One Track Mind" was almost derailed by a torrent of water which poured in through a leak in the roof. Despite this minor mishap, the production was a huge success.

The cast included the following: Marie Kachinski, Ada Osgood, Joseph Kavanaugh, Eleanor Singerman, Daniel Doherty, Patricia Anthony, Peter Melnik, Dora Argeros, Adele Herman, Rose Papanickolas, Kay Berry, Shirley Leonard, Howard Dolloff, and Peter Bouras of the Class of '48; Madeline Hobbs, '49; Sally McLain and Melvin Mizner of the Class of 1950.

The Director of the play was Mr. D. Edward Gorman; Assistant Directors, Ellen Wadden, '48 and Aurelie Dodge, '48; Stage Manager, Sigmund Kramnick, '48; Assistant Stage Manager, Ruth Pierce, 48; Prompter, Katherine Dunn, '48 and Patricia Cody, '49.

PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL REVUE

On Thursday and Friday nights of April fifteenth and sixteenth the Peabody High School Revue, entitled "Happy Daze", was presented at the Peabody High School Auditorium after many weeks of rehearsal. These rehearsals were under the capable supervision of Mrs. Ruth Conley, who was assisted by Miss Lena Armstrong, the pianist. Depicting several scenes from our country's history in such a way as to encompass the great and varied amount of talent present at Peabody High School, the revue more than lived up to expectations.

Among the stars of the Senior Class Presentation were little Joan Cronidas who sang two songs and was very warmly received by the audience. The dancing chores of the evening were ably undertaken by Edith Mahoney, '47, whose two graceful dances were among the highlights of the show. The popular Shirley Remis, one of the stars of last year's revue, gave two of her typically fine renditions.

Other outstanding performers were Kelly Georgoulis, Rose Papanickolas, Jane Freitas, Lydia Micalchuk, Shirley Devaney, George Rafiel, Ruth O'Leary, Arthur Drivas, Steve Aradas, Arthur Hatgis, Helen O'Connor, Robert Dowdell, Roy Lee, Shirley Campbell, "Skippy" McKeen, Joyce Vagge, Tony Tsapatsaris, Marie Kachinski and Roger Dow. Joan Lawless' personality-packed "Florence" really took the folks by surprise.

The "Style Show", with Dan Doherty as announcer, was one of the featured numbers and lived up to expectations when it kept the audience in constant and uproarious laughter. The group dances, which were realistically arranged by Mrs. Conley, were highly successful.

Arthur Drivas, as President of the Senior Class, made the welcoming speech and Joe Kavanaugh served as narrator.

Although they appeared a little frightened, all members of the cast enjoyed performing on the stage, a new experience for many of them. Our Senior Class owes a great debt of gratitude to Mrs. Conley and her assistants for the splendid show that took the stage on April 15 and 16 to represent the graduating class of 1948. We are also very grateful to the following, for their thankless but indispensable aid: Miss Helen M. O'Keefe, Mrs. Eva L. Haines, Mrs. Henry Leonard, Miss Marie Coyle, Mr. Edward Gorman, Mr. Lawrence Cuddire, Charles O'Shea, Edward T. Donahue, Mr. Arthur J. Barry, Mr. Timothy F. McCarthy, Mr. Charles Carlin, Mr. William A. Welch, as well as the entire P. H. S. Faculty, Don Vagge, '47, and the following boys who helped out back-stage: McGreggor, Bangs, Maron, Southwick, and Edelstein.

Raid On Local Tailor Shop

By LULU HIKKUP

A daring police raid led by this city's brave and ignoble police chief Charles Lewis last night turned our peaceful square into one of turmoil. Recent investigations by plain-clothes men Dan Sweeney and Dan Scribner revealed to them the fact that illicit activities were going on in the rear and in the cellar of Bobby Maron's tailor shop. Chief Lewis and officers Bobby Jenkins, John Taffe, George Fox, George Thompson, and Teddy Thrasivoulos stormed into the shop at approximately five last evening and confronted the proprietor, Bob Maron with the evidence that had been gathered. Astounded customers Effie Panagoplos and Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarken (Stella Themes) quickly left the store and it was later learned that they were not involved. Your reporter was nearly knocked for a loop when an innocent looking rack of clothes was turned round and a secret door opened. The busy scene before us was amazing. One of the most efficient bookmaking outfits ever brought to light, probably in operation since 1948, was cleaned up by our demolition squad, Hal Bernstein, Chris Tombros, Len Sullivan and William Lawless

Further investigation brought notice to a gambling room in the cellar of the well-known establishment. James Stevens, operator of the roulette wheel was taken into custody.

Just as police were leaving with the handcuffed lawbreakers Miss Alicia Palczynski drove up to say that the person who had been doping her horses had been apprehended. This explained the situation of so many longshot winners to Mr. Kardentz who, during the past week, had nearly lost his shirt. The case will be brought to court in the near future

It will go down in police annals as the "Who put the Bookie slip in Danny Scribner's Vest Case." Just after the black Maria had pulled away from the curb. Joe Regis drove up in his green and orange fire truck designed by Charles St. Paul and began smashing his way through the store front. He completely destroyed the door and a counter before he could be told that he was too late, thus adding a humorous ending to the story.

SOCIETY

By UPPITY UPTON

Tea Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Sally Cummings were hosts to a gala affair at their palatial Wa'nut stree' res'dence last evening. Among the guests present was that suave, man-about-town, Artturo Drivas, just back from a short hop to Afghanistan. Among the post-debutantes were Mlles. Shirley Leonard and Patrician Anthony. The evening proceeded rather delightfully until a Mr. Theodore Scholnick, serving as butler only out of the sheer desperation of the hosts, spilled a large container of punch on Mlle. Leonard's new, new-look gown (skirt length one-half inch below sea level). Fortunately the color of the punch matched the color of Mlle. Leonard's new gown and for the rest of the evening she went about proudly displaying the only punch-instilled gown in existence.

Music was furnished by Chester Dlugokinski and his orchestra. Among the orchestra's members there were two ex-Peabody High School pupils, Louis Goutzos and Joseph Melota. Sigmund Kramnick favored the group with a vocal solo preceding the end of the dance.

Premiere

By FIRST NIGHTA

The premiere of George Rafiel's dramatic production "The Seedy Grass" will be held at the Astor Theatre in Boston on Friday next at 8:20. The feminine lead of frustrated pretzel twister, Myrtle Belle Snodgrass, will be played by Marie Kachinski. The higly comical role of Cassius Hetherington, the butler, will be played by Teddy O'Keefe. The play revolves about Myrtle Belle's efforts to convince Cassius of his hidden talent as a grave-digger. It is rumored that the Misses Vera Palmachuk and Theresa Killeen aided materially in the preparation of the manuscript.

Announcements

By FULLA DOPE

The honorable Peter Mandragouras wishes to announce the opening of a Television Theatre in the place of the Strand Theater on Main Street. Having purchased the property only a few months ago. Mr. Mandragouras has planned to present his first show next Saturday. Mr. Mandragouras has requested that we convey the following message: "Come one, come all to the great opening day show. Have a wonderful time and bring the kiddies."

Next week will be celebrated as Girl Scout Week and Miss Ada Osgood will take charge of this city's festivities. She has planned a delightful excursion along the banks of the once odoriferous North River. Before the day is through, Miss Osgood will go from house to house, until she has canvassed the entire city leaving a Girl Scout cookie at every door.

Carter Goes Spooning

By ALOTA MUSH

Professor Clarence Carter, prominent professor of women psychology and newly elected president of Vassar College, was discovered spooning with his best pupil on a bench on the campus. The Board of Trustees, with Adele Herman and June Jackson as most active members, will meet this afternoon to demand his resignation.

Three Kidnapped in $10,000,000 Holdup

By WHO DONEIT

In one of the most brazen holdups in a decade, two armed men, one using a water pistol, forced Priscilla Antonio, cashier at Pete Bouras' Central Street Market, to open the sofe so they could take $10,000,000 in Confederate money. While one of the men held the gun in the girl's back as she fumbled with the combination on the safe, the second gunman kept the proprietor, Mr. Bouras, and a clerk, Fred Reid, under gunpoint in a taxi cab stolen from Jacques Potash.

An alert passerby, Mary Tavares pulled in a fire alarm when she saw what was happening, but she was too late to save the three from being kidnapped. The three were released on the Marsh Road and the case is being investigated.

Congratulations

Congratulations to: Mr. and Mrs John Coombs (nee Helen Dullea) and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pike (nee Priscilla Julian) on their first wedding anniversaries.

Gifted Doctor Experiments With Sensational Elixir

By MESSY JOB

In recent weeks, the eminent Doctor Roger J. P. Dow has been experimenting with his new discovery ethylsulfabenzedrenalthiazole. To further the progress of science, John Horrigan, Jr., has offered himself as the guinea pig for Dow's new type of anesthesia.

So far, great steps have been taken and only one difficulty has arisen. Since his first exposure to the great drug, Horrigan has never shown signs of awakening.

Open Dance Studio

By STEP LIVELY

Miss Shirley Remis and Neil McLain have opened a new dance studio at 629 Main street under the pseudonym of the Dippy Dance Dive. Miss Marion Keenan is the attractive receptionist.

The professors Remis and McLain are planning a recital on June 31; which will be highlighted by a soft shoe tap done by Manny Singer and a toe dance specialty called, "The Dead Duck" starring Elsie Vieira.

The recital will be held at Dot Whitcomb Hall, formerly the scene of many barn dances on upper Forest street.

Run Away Returns

By IMA COMIN

John N. Lynch, Jr., 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lynch (nee Nancy Doody) returned home yesterday morning after a boyish sojourn to the big city (New York). Frantic parents notified N. Y. police who put the lad on a train for home when he was picked up for attending a movie after the curfew hour. The much relieved mother was heard to murmur: "Like father, like son."

Senator's Bid for Reelection Foiled By Five-Year-Old

By WILLIE GETIT

Running for reelection on the abolition of further extension platform, Senator Joseph Kavanaugh's chances of sitting in on the next session of Congress were all but abandoned when it was learned that he had contracted the measles.

Speaking at a large rally of the Married Women's Club in Peabody Square, one of the Senator's chief duties was to plant a gentle kiss on the delicate little foreheads of the children brought before him. Much to the Senator's disgust, one of those charming little offsprings, five years of age, was (unknown to his parents) a carrier of the disease known as measles.

When your reporter interviewed the bedridden Senator expecting naturally enough, that the Senator's first words would be of pardon for the child who had unknowingly spoiled his chances for reelection, he was shocked to record the following statement made by the frenzied Mr. Kavanaugh: "That------kid------! Next time I'll kiss the old ladies."

On the Square

By JOE BLOCK

As regular as clock work every day Aurelie Dodge Jordan and Barb Brunt Cronin are seen carrying their husbands' lunches through the square. Very few men are so lucky as Neil and Johnnie to have such thoughtful wives.

We were talking to the new manager of the V and X, Helen Collins, at lunch the other day and she said that she had seen Cynthia Manitakos and she looked really wonderful, good news, indeed, for her many friends who haven't seen her since she and Joan Mason set up housekeeping in their Greenwich Village apartment in New York. While we were talking, Evie Domingos Vagge came in and stopped at our table for a minute. Since Don has that job on Stephen Aradas' magazine called "Controversy", Evie has been taking it easy.

At the table next to ours several of the white collar girls were lunching, among them Ethel Swanson, Mary Sullivan, Betty Holuk. We heard them talking about the new bridge that has been constructed by the James Sullivan Construction Company between Brown's Pond and the pond at the foot of Bartholomew street. It is the first bridge made entirely of matches and has been under construction for twelve years. Waitress Bea Manos then brought our check and we got out just in time to see Bea Lebel and Glory Gill go whizzing by in their '63 convertible with chintz upholstery and venetian blinds.

Huge Fashion Show

A gigantic fashion show under the sponsorsbip of Smyrnios, Tsitsinos, Karakaedos and O'Donnell, Inc., owners of the largest haberdashery in the United States, was held yesterday to acquaint the public with the latest styles of that noted fashion genius Pierre Keith.

Mr. Keith's creations were shown off to advantage by models Lois Little, Barbara Caulfield and Susie Havian. Seated in the audience was Rose Papanickolas, hat designer, wearing one of her own creations, a cage containing white mice.

Pictures were taken by Hamel-Alexander Studio of Bolyston street, Brookline.

Cars Collide on Main Street

By WASN'T LOOKING

Mr. Michael Guzowski suffered laceration of the head and arm yesterday when his car collided with one of the Feldman Driving Sschool cars. At the time Miss Ellen Wadden was at the wheel. Miss Wadden was unable to understand Peabody's system of pink and blue traffic lights, but she was heard to sigh, "There's John," immediately preceding the accident.

By-standers Charles Zolotas and Donald Wronkowski testified in Guzowski's favor. His mother-in-law, uninjured by the collision, surprisingly sided with Miss Wadden, stating that he had not followed her instructions to turn around and drive home to retrieve her forgotten hat pin.

Dr. Philip Goulston, arriving on the scene soon after, as a result of his X-ray television set for sighting prospective patients, bandaged Guzowski's minor cuts and pronounced him alive.

Gorden Jury Trial Under Way

By E. Z. QUIZZER

Today the jury trial of Donald M. Gordon started off with a bang when the first all-woman jury filed into the courtroom. Those women whose names will go down in the annals of history for this great occasion are Theresa Mae Killeen, Alyce Mary Kavalchuk. Dolores Kowalski, Ruth Bertha Laitinen, Mary Louise Mahoney, Cynthia Mandragouras, Margaret Dorothy McCarthy, Felicia Caroline Nekoroski Mrs. Otis Shepard (nee Eleanor Newton), Mrs. Henry Pelletier (nee Eileen Siemasko), and Miss Maryann E. J. Levasseur, Judge Aristotle Vontzalides presided.

There were only two witnesses for the defense, Miss Anna Kerkorian and Rosemary Gray. Miss Kerkorian testified that she had served Gordon tea at the new Tea Shoppe the night of May 32, but when District Attorney Paul Wallace brought our Raymond Potter, Miss Kerkorian stated that she may have been mistaken.

Miss Gray testified that she had been with the accused on the night of the supposed murder, but later recalled that she had been selling tickets at the New Elite Strande.

Gordon was accused of cutting Arnold Messenger's air hose while he was diving in hopes of salvaging the gold plate on "Sunny" Lawrence's new 1964 rocket car.

Gordon is hopeful of acquittal for he always was a favorite with the ladies.

Woman Injures Supposed Prowler

By USIN JUDO

Miss Lois Fitchuk, hearing strange noises in the rear of her home last night, dropped a flower pot of petunias on the head of Asa Hatgis who had returned from Hollywood for a visit and lost his way. Mr. Hatgis fell in an onion patch and when the ambulance, driven by Ray Margeson arrived, he was singing, "I'm a Lonely Little Petunia in an Onion Patch."

Christening of Rocket Ship

By I. CAN BREAKEM

The christening of the rocket ship "Peaches", invention of John "Buck" Geraghty, will highlight the evening at the esplanade on the Charles River tomorrow night. The bottle of ketchup, held by Frances Pietrzak, will break across the bow at 8:30 and the rocket, driven by daring adventuress, Ruth Pierce, will take off for the moon. This is her eighty-second daring escapade and the whole world will be waiting for her return.

Recent Appointments

By U. CANDOIT

Miss Marjorie Blodjian has been appointed head buyer at Almy's Department Store after 17 years of faithful service.

The resignation of the girl's athletic teacher, Felicia Nekoroski at Peabody High School will see Olympic champion, Venita Bezemes appointed to the position.

Miss Anita Santuliani has been appointed 9th vice-president at Pavenski Commercial School, located in the old police station on Chestnut street. Classes are held in the cells.

Sports Travelog

By BOB SOUTHWICK

Sports history will be made when a record breaking crowd attends the championship wrestling match between Don Desmond, the challenger, and Frank Siston at the Wilson Square Gardens on next Friday night.

Immediately after the bout Peabody's own "flying parson", Bocky Bangs, running the yard against Gil Dodds, will hold the spotlight.

First woman promoter, Selma Erlick, is trying to bring about a boxing match between "Jersey Jim" Holleran and the present champ. "Jersey Jim's" technique of hypnotism has caused him to win 499 straight knockouts. Will he hit 500 and take home the cup?

Another surprise was the resignation of the Celtic's basketball coach. It is rumored that he will be replaced by Len Mahoney of Peabody, who has coached that city's basketball team to three years of continuous victories.

P. H. S.'s million dollar trade bait, Ray Potter, will be traded to the Boston Yanks football team for Boley Dancewitz. Mr. Potter was a star on his high school football team for three years and is well deserving of the honor.

Escort Bureau

By R. U. LONELY

Girls, do you want to dance your leisure hours away in the arms of a handsome, debonair, young man? All you have to do is contact Miss Betty Riley who has opened an escort bureau. She guarantees you a "night to remember" for only $60 an hour.

Among those employed by Miss Riley are Billy Grenrod and Eddie Church.

She also sponsors a "What to Wear" office under the capable supervision of Barbara Fellows, who designs "clothes to fit your personality".

Cooking Class

By FULLA DOUGH

The opening of a cooking class at the P. H. S. auditorium by those culinary experts, Julie Conchado and Stacy DeCoulos was announced by the High School Principal, Howard Dolloff, Julia and Stacey will send Father Dan Doherty to your home free of charge, if the recipes recommended by them have any bad effects. Their motto is "Feed the Brute."

DAY BY DAY

September 8, 1947—Today's the day! As the bell rings, the old-timers nonchalantly enter the portals of P. H. S. for one more year, while the incoming freshmen dash hither and yon trying desperately not to show that they are recruits. We're seniors at last, and although some of us foolishly count the days until "freedom rings", there will be more than one moist eye on Sunday afternoon, June 6. So, Class of '48, let's have fun and make each day as full as we possibly can because sooner than we think, the doors of P. H. S. will be shutting out pleasant and cherished memories of happy, care-free days.

September 15—We've been here one short week and already the teachers are back to the old routine as we rather reluctantly return to the same old grind. Books! Books! Books! We are being driven mad—en masse!!

September 22—Location: Manning Bowl. Occasion: Peabody vs. Classical. Yesterday, the fans went to Manning Bowl to see Classical High romp all over the supposedly hopeless Tanners. But faithful as ever, "Our Boys" showed Harry Agganis and Classical High how to play football when the chips are down. With all due respect to Harry and his teammates, they couldn't help looking a little bewildered as they stumbled from the field while the scoreboard told the cold, hard facts: Peabody 12—Classical 7.

September 24—There was a mad dash for the bulletin boards this morning to see the results of the Senior Class elections. Those surviving were able to spread the word around that Arthur Drivas had been elected President, Helen Dullea, Vice President; Charles St. Paul, Treasurer and Ellen Wadden, Secretary.

October 13—We made our debut as socialites tonight, and our first attempt at money-making was extremely successful as Seniors, Juniors and others danced to the music of Dick Haskell at the Columbus Day Dance.

October 29—This morning, we were pushed a little nearer to graduation as short and tall alike were measured for caps and gowns. "Tempus is fugiting."

November 2—Quarterly exams started today and "Heaven help him who has not studied."

November 7 or whereabouts—The "New Look" has finally hit Peabody High and the boys seem rather disgusted and disappointed with the long skirts. Oh well, boys, that's life!

November 24—Report cards—'Nuff said!!

November 27—We said goodbye to high school football today as the Tanners wound up the 1947 football season by handing Saugus High an unexpected defeat. Once again, our boys have proved to the "Main Street quarter-backs and fair-weather fans" that they have the determination and stamina to succeed in the game of football and most important in the game of life.

December 19—A typical night for the Christmas Ball with snow on the ground and the temperature hovering around 12 degrees Fahrenheit. But the elements were the last of our worries as we danced to the sweet music of Dick Haskell's orchestra and every now and then as the lights were dimmed, some shy Senior lad could be seen taking advantage of the mistletoe that hung so defiantly from the rafters. A most fitting way to celebrate the last dance of the year.

January 5 1948—We trudged back to school today and the general opinion seemed to be that we should have had another week off to recuperate from Christmas vacation. Sounds like a good idea.

January 14—It was snowing very hard this morning and "Headquarters" decided to let us out of school early as a precautionary measure. Lo and behold after we were dismissed, it stopped snowing!

February 6—Although several of Cupid's arrows successfully hit their targets today, our "Cupid's Ball" was not so successful in completing its mission i.e., raising money. If class spirit seems a little low right now, we can blame it on the weather, but when Spring comes, we must regain our old Spirit and make the class of '48 the best to leave Peabody High.

February 13—Report cards again. Have they no mercy???

March 8—Rehearsals for the Revue have started and by the looks of things it seems as though rehearsals are going to be a lot of fun, with every one crowded around the piano singing on key and off key, but nevertheless singing. All our hidden talent is slowly developing and who knows, we may be seeing Broadway soon!!

March 22—Gainshorough is showing his talents these days as graduation pictures change hands. The corridors are filled with portraits of the handsome boys and beautiful girls (Seniors, naturally) who well may be the glamour boys and girls of the future.

April 8—Today's the day! As we sit in class with one eye on the clock and a handful of fingernails in our mouths, we anxiously await 7th period when the Honors will be announced. The bell rings and after we stumble in, Mr. Barry takes out his fateful slip of paper and announces in a SLOW, clear voice as follows: Valedictorian, Dan Doherty; Salutatorian, Barbara Brunt, Speaker, Adele Herman; Speaker, Marie Kachinski; Honor Students, Dora Argeros, Roger Dow, Sigmund Kramnick, Ellen Wadden—and then it's over. But wait a minute, what's this? All the honor students are sobbing helplessly. Quote the moron: "Is that something to cry about?"

April 9—Gainsborough is around again with his camera and those classroom pictures ought to be used to frighten children into behaving. Let's hope we look like humans in the group pictures or is that asking too much?

April 15—Opening night of the Revue and were we scared! But as always we managed to stagger through with the old theatrical spirit that "The show must go on."

April 16—We performed like troupers tonight, and now that it's all over but the shooting, we are going to miss those happy rehearsals that made our show such a wonderful success.

April 23—Spring vacation starts today and you'd think we were anxious to get out of school as we race down over the steps and tear down Central Street!

May 28—We were dismissed from class today, and to celebrate the occasion we went to our Farewell Dance to bid a fond adieu to Peabody High, our Alma Mater. May she live in our memories always.

June 1—"Eat, drink and be merry, for soon we shall be dissolved." Let this be our motto as we attend our class banquet to celebrate what a few may call "independence day" but what most of us will remember as an occasion that will recall pleasant memories of our happy high school days.

June 6—Graduation day and as we sit together in a body for the last time to receive our diplomas, a sharp pang of lonesomeness comes over us and the dry eyes are few and far between. "The day" has finally arrived and although some are ashamed to admit such a thing, we all wish we were freshmen again, just starting our four happy years of high school.

June 8—As the orchestra played soft music and the warm summer breeze filled this June night, we danced at our Senior Reception and wondered what the future would be like. Well, no matter what the future brings, we did have a wonderful time and these have truly been "the best years of our lives".

CLASS WILL

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! We, the members of the class of 1948, of Peabody High School of Peabody, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound mind (?) and memory do on this, the sixth day of June in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-eight, hereby make this our last will and testament and so bequeath our earthly possessions as follows:

1. "Art" Drivas leaves his friendly manner and winning ways to Paul Leonard.
2. Dora Argeros commits all her pep and energy to Mary Tsaltas.
3. Our Class Commedian "Dickie" Burke, commits all his witty remarks to any Junior capable of taking his place.
4. Audrey Aldus wills her darling dimples to Joanne French.
5. Helen Dook commits her silence to study rooms greatly in need of same.
6. Roger Dow leaves his laundry (pronounced lawn'-dre) to any Junior interested in washing clothes.
7. Ada Osgood bequeaths her "flaming torch" to Barbara Leonard.
8. Clair Tsorvas leaves her sweeping lashes to the custodian who may find need of them when he is minus a broom.
9. Dan Doherty commits his dictionary to any Junior who has the strength to carry it.
10. "Baldy" Southwick leaves the basket empty . . . for a change!
11. Mary Boyle bequeaths her "starry eyes" to Muriel Spates.
12. Paul Hamel leaves his . . . NOTES!!!
13. Lois Little commits her sophistication to "Kelly" Georgoulas.
14. Steve Aradas leaves his age old philosophy of "never argue with a woman" to any Junior willing to adopt his views.
15. "Jackie" Coombs bequeaths his athletic ability to "Richie" Santos.
16. Thelma Feldman leaves her car to any Junior going into the junk business!
17. Joan Mason commits her lovely golden tresses to "Minny" Sarowsky.
18. "Ray" Potter bequeaths his football uniform to any two Juniors who think they can fit into it. into it.
19. Neil Jordan leaves his good looks to "Bob" Auen.
20. "Teddy" Thrasivoulos commits his favorite saying ("shut up") to all boys being bothered by girls.
21. Shirley Remis bequeaths her songbird abilities to Joan Cromidas.
22. Mary Sullivan commits her skill for chasing teachers to any Junior receiving an "F" at report card time.
23. "Jimmy" Smyrnios leaves his executive abilities to David Strauss.
24. Alyce Kolvalchuck bequeaths her "strangle hold" to any Junior boy interested in wrestling.
25. "Bobby" Jenkins commits his small stature to "Danny" Spaneas.
26. Neil McLain leaves his dancing shoes to "Stratie" Kirlis.
27. "Susie" Havian bequeaths her task of "look it up in the dictionary" to any shorthand student, who finds it necessary to continue in her footsteps.
28. "Charlie" St. Paul gladly leaves the class financial problems to "Jack" Burke.
29. "Clancey" Carter leaves his tardy slips to any Junior who is going into the waste paper business.
30. "Joe" Kavanaugh commits his fine statesmanship abilities to Henry Mizner.
31. "Manny" Singer bequeaths the knowledge he received in the "Rules of the Road" course to any Junior seeking a license.
32. Evelyn Domingos leaves her neat appearance to Barbara Minot.
33. Last, but by no means least, we the humble Class of "48" leave our faculty the tender silence, which for four years they tried so hard to obtain.

TO OUR TEACHERS

To Miss Sheehan we leave the football field, so that she may have a flower garden as large as her heart.

To Miss Carroll—we leave to her the memory of the finest math classes she has ever had the privilege to teach.

To Miss Lee and Miss Fitzgerald—we leave with them the wish that French becomes the universal language.

To Mr. Burke—we can't leave much for him, because we've already taken or ruined everything. However, I'm sure we shall never forget our jolliest teacher.

To Mr. Brawley—we leave him with our wish that he shall always maintain that muscular physique. He shall always remain in our memories as the all-star he is.

To Mr. Gorman—we leave him with his own wish, that the New York Yankees may again win the pennant by 1960.

To Mr. Sullivan—we leave the wish that in future years he shall be teaching more of Einstein's prodigies.

To Mr. McCarthy—we leave to him tranquility, confusion, and his great sense of humor. May his "vicious circle" be stopped before it develops into a snowman, and may his eloquent tongue always be the talk of his math classes.

Our earthly goods and possessions being thus disposed of in the manner prescribed and stated above, we, as representatives of the Class of 1948, in testimony thereof, hereto affix our names.

FOOTBALL

Our Peabody High football team in Senior year although not able to boast of a spotless record, provided many a thrill throughout the season and proved to be one of the outstanding teams along the North Shore.

Although losing to Saugus in a Spring game, the inexperienced Tanners made a fine showing and gave warning that they would be a threat throughout the season.

After holding an experienced Gloucester team to a scoreless tie in the Annual Football Jamboree, the Tanners opened their regular grid season with a victory over Wakefield.

The season was highlighted by three great victories over Lynn Classical, Salem, and Saugus which were considered the strongest teams on the North Shore. Our defeat of Classical proved to be the only blot on the otherwise perfect record of our neighbor from Lynn. With a little better luck against the weaker teams, the Tanners would have been one of the top aggregations in the State.

Congratulations to Captain Paul Wallace and Raymond Potter for being selected to represent Peabody in the North Shore All-Star game.

Our graduating regulars are: Captain Paul Wallace, Arthur Drivas, Raymond Potter, Joseph Caulfield, James Sullivan, Joseph Regis, Charles St. Paul, John Coombs, James Smyrnios.

BASKETBALL

The seasonal play of the '48 basketball team was greatly overshadowed by the brilliant performance of Capt. Robert Southwick who sparked his team to a fourth place berth and also captured the Essex County individual scoring crown. The team ended with six wins as against eight defeats during the regular season and also captured two exhibition tilts against Saugus High.

Congratulations to Capt. Robert Southwick for his selection to the first team on the Essex County All-Star team.

HOCKEY

The first official hockey team in the history of Peabody High School has come to a glorious conclusion after a brilliant and praiseworthy showing on North Shore ice throughout the season. After a strenuous ten game schedule, the Peabody aggregation, under the leadership of Coach Charles Carlin, had to be content with a second place berth in the standings. The Peabody boys ended but three points behind the Saugus High Sachems, now acclaimed as the North Shore Hockey League Champs.

Our congratulations to Captain John Coombs and Charles St. Paul for being selected to represent Peabody in the All-Star game held in Boston.

The following boys are graduating and will be missing from the hockey lineup next year:

Capt. John Coombs, Charles St. Paul, James Sullivan, Joseph Regis, Paul Wallace.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

MENS SANA IN CORPORE SANO

The students of Peabody High School have long realized that health is of vital importance to society. How else can a high school student come into close and more vital association with groups of individuals working toward a common end and learn the paramount lessons of cooperation and leadership? Only through physical training will this goal be achieved.

Approximately eighty young basketball players responded to the call of our diligent and capable instructor, Miss Mary McNamara to exhibit qualities of fine sportsmanship, self-control, cooperation and dexterity.

The following girls were members of the first team of the Varsity squad: Captain, Venita Bezemes and Patricia Anthony.

The following Senior girls were also members of the Varsity squad: Rose Papanickolas, Mary Levasseur, Aurelie Dodge and Shirley Leonard.

The team was managed by Dora Argeros.

Undoubtedly, Venita and Patricia will be greatly missed. The team is a physical outlet for apprehensive Freshmen, pert Sophomores, gay Juniors, and our athletic Seniors.

Most of the games played were on a home and home basis. The results wese as follows: Peabody 40 vs. St. Thomas of Peabody 23; Peabody 22 vs. St. Mary's of Salem 28; Peabody 14 vs. Marblehead 21; Peabody 15 vs St. Mary's 32; Peabody 14 vs. Ipswich 27; Peabody 29 vs. Beverly 17; Peabody 21 vs. Beverly 18.

The inter-class basketball team of the Seniors consisted of: Captain Dora Argeros, Ellen Osepchuk, Mary Delivorias, Aurelie Dodge, Rose Papanickolas, Venita Bezemes, Eleanor Singerman, Dorothy Whitcomb, Margaret McCarthy, Vera Palmachuk, Lois Fitchuk, Patricia Anthony, Mary Levasseur, Sultana Jimokas, Felicia Nekeroski.

Members of the girls' basketball team of 1948 will, in the years to come, look back with considerable enjoyment on the frolic and fun they experienced in playing these games.

CLASS BASKETBALL AND SOFT BALL TEAM

GIRLS' SENIOR BASKETBALL AND SOFTBALL TEAM

SOFTBALL

The response to softball was just as enthusiastic as that of basketball. Play for play's sake and not the applause of a crowd was the ideal. The girls' "Big Time" Softball League was organized, each girl drawing for the Braves, Red Sox, Yankees, or Dodgers team.

The following are the captains of the various groups: Braves, Patricia Anthony; Red Sox, Virginia Diachisin; Yankees, Phyllis Massey, Dodgers, Lillian St. Paul.

The following Senior girls participated in softball games: Captain Dora Argeros, Ellen Osepchuk, Patricia Anthony, Mary Levasseur, Venita Bezemes, Felicia Nekoroski, Margaret Caulfield, Eleanor Signerman, Rose Papanickolas, Lois Fitchuk, Vera Palmachuk, Katherine Dunn, Aurelie Dodge, Mary Delivorias.

We regret that we cannot give a fuller account of the activities of our softball teams, for as this is written our girls have just organized for what they hope will be an interesting season of play.

The End of the Play

The play is done; the curtain drops,
Slow falling to the prompter's bell:
A moment yet the actor stops,
And looks around, to say farewell.
It is an irksome word and task;
And, when he's laughed and said his say,
He shows, as he removes the mask,
A face that's anything but gay.
